PROFILE

Creator and Showrunner of Netflix animated series “Dogs in Space” (2021). Managed teams of Writers, Concept Artists, Designers, Storyboard Artists, Animators, Editors, and Production. Whether it's through concept art, animated pieces or script, I am a storyteller through and through. Character development is my passion and where my focus is. Through working on a series production I have worked inside a writers room where we worked together to come up with stories that would be captivating and character development to make the characters feel alive and relatable. My unique position gives me insight into what is expected from Writers/Storytellers on an animation production.
